ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Chief Executive Officer, Employment Generation and Marketing Mission (EGMM) has stated that the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, had released guidelines for the skill development programmes of Aajeevika Skills and Roshni Scheme. Aajeevika Skills programme is aimed at empowering the skills of youth in rural areas alongside providing sustainable employment. Roshini Scheme is a subset of Aajeevika Skills which is aimed at skill development in extremist affected districts across the country Andhra Pradesh is designated as Annual Action Plan (AAP) state by Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India. As per Section 4.1, Aajeevika Skills guidelines, an AAP State can approve individual projects without prior clearance from MoRD, but this must be done using provisions as per the guidelines only. In case of proposals received under ROSHNI Scheme, as per Section 10, ROSHNI guidelines, the final approval lies with MoRD, the State can recommend the proposals to MoRD.

2. As per the Section 4, table 2, Aajeevika Skills guidelines, the final approval of proposals rests with the Project Approval Committee of AAP States. In our State, a PAC needs to be constituted first and it must be incorporated into the structure of skills Mission of Andhra Pradesh. PAC should hold meeting every month to consider proposals received over the previous months.

3. The Chief Executive Officer, EGMM has therefore requested the Government to constitute the Project Approval Committee (PAC) for the State of AP for implementing the Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Gramin Kaushalya Yojana (DDU-GKY) of MoRD for approval of various applications received under the Aajeevika Skills / ROSHNI Scheme and for performing the following role:

1. The PAC shall play a vital role in pooling the funds from different sources (as per the State share) depending upon the volume of project proposals received and approved.
2. The PAC shall review the programme based on the status of the project proposals on a periodical basis.
3. The PAC shall act as the appellate authority on disputes between EGMM and PIAs.
4. The PAC shall decide on the maximum permissible unit costs of training programmes.
5. The PAC shall give approval on capital expenditure on equipment.
6. The PAC shall allow deviations from the category wise targets (SC,ST,Women, minority etc.) for PIAs if there are sufficient grounds for the same.

[P.T.O]

4. In the circumstances reported by the Chief Executive Officer, EGMM in the references read above, Government after careful consideration hereby constitute the Project Approval Committee (PAC) for the State of Andhra Pradesh with the following officials for approval of various application received under the Aajeevika Skills / ROSHNI Scheme keeping in view of the guidelines issued by the MoRD and other functions as stated at para (3) above.
